BME is providing a joint showcase platform at the International Sourcing Fair for companies from the German-speaking economic area. Do not miss this opportunity! At your stand you can explain your sourcing requirements to suppliers. You can also receive suppliers at appointed times that have been selected according to your specifications (Matchmaking).

Process

- Booking
You can book your stand through BME (Standard booth: 3 x 3 metres*; additional space available). You decide whether you also wish to take part in the BME Sourcing Conference and the Supporting Programme.
- Matchmaking Available now!
You specify the product fields you are seeking for matchmaking. In close co-ordination with you and the BME, BME's partner ISPC - International Shanghai Promotion Centre – will select targeted Chinese suppliers and invite them to your stand. Additional option: Approach or invite Chinese suppliers you have already identified and would like to now get to know (better).
- Arrival / Hotel
Arrival: individual; Advantage: You decide when and at what conditions you book your flight / accommodations.
BME hotel tip:
